- Will promote race equality and have due regard to eliminate unlawful racial discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and promote good relations between people of different racial groups.
- Will promote disability equality throughout the school, ensuring equality of opportunity, eliminating unlawful discrimination, eliminating disability-related harassment and encouraging participation by disabled people in public life.
- Will promote gender equality by eliminating unlawful discrimination and harassment, and promote equality of opportunity between men and women, girls and boys.
- Is opposed to all forms of prejudice and recognises that children and young people who experience any form of prejudice-related discrimination may fare less well in the education system.

Transgender people are explicitly covered by the gender equality duty. For the purposes of this policy, the term 'transgender' refers to an individual whose gender expression or identity is different from that traditionally associated with the sex they were assigned at birth. This school will respect the confidentiality of those seeking gender re-assignment and will provide a supportive environment within the social community.

- Observe good equalities practice in staff recruitment, retention and development, and ensure that all policies and procedures benefit all employees and potential employees regardless of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age, and with full respect for legal rights relating to pregnancy and maternity.

- Reduce and remove inequalities and barriers that already exist.
- Engage with a range of groups and individuals, and consult with parents/carers and children, to ensure that those who are affected by a policy, procedure or activity are consulted and involved in the design of new policies, and in the review of existing ones.
- Ensure that policies, procedures and activities benefit society as a whole, both locally and nationally, by fostering greater social cohesion, and greater participation in the public life of everyone, regardless of their race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.
- Ensure staff promote an inclusive and collaborative ethos in the school, challenging inappropriate language and behaviour, responding appropriately to incidents of discrimination and harassment, and showing appropriate support for pupils with additional needs, maintaining a good level of awareness of issues surrounding equalities.

5. Gender reassignment

5.1. The Act ensures legal protection against discrimination (direct or indirect) for everyone under the nine protected characteristics mentioned previously, including gender reassignment.

5.2. A person has the protected characteristic of gender reassignment if that person is proposing to undergo, is undergoing or has undergone a process (or part of a process) for the purpose of reassigning the person's sex by changing physiological or other attributes of sex.

5.3. All members of staff and pupils have a right to privacy, which includes the right to keep one's transgender status confidential. School staff should not disclose information that may reveal a child or other staff members transgender status.

5.4. A glossary of terminology related to the transgender field can be found on the Gender Identity Research and Education Society Website.

6. Uniform/dress policy

6.1. The Act does not deal specifically with school uniform or other aspects of appearance, such as hair colour and style, and the wearing of jewellery and make-up, but the general requirement not to discriminate in the treatment of pupils applies here in relation to other aspects of the school policy.

6.2. Westfield Primary Community School will ensure that blanket uniform policies do not discriminate because of race, gender, disability, religion/belief, sexual orientation or age.

6.3. Westfield Primary Community School will be sensitive to the needs of different cultures, races and religions and act reasonably in accommodating these needs, without compromising important school policies, such as school safety or discipline.

7. Curriculum

7.1. All pupils will be entitled to access to a curriculum and to teaching and learning opportunities which meet their needs, including extra support where this has been identified as a statutory need. When planning the curriculum, the school will take every opportunity to promote and advance equality.

7.2. At Westfield, the children are involved in decisions concerning their education; they participate in democratic class decisions, they actively engage in their education and contribute to the development of education policy.

7.3. We ensure that a child or young person's education will help their mind, body and talents be the best they can. It will also build their respect for other people and the world around them. In particular, they will learn to respect: their rights and the rights of others; their freedoms and the freedoms of others; their parents and their identity, language and values of countries—including their own.

7.4. We will prepare the children for a responsible life in a free society. We will teach them how to live in an understanding and tolerant way that is non-violent and that respects the environment.

8. Promoting equality

In order to meet our objectives, the school has identified the following priorities:

8.1. Westfield Primary Community School will seek to provide auxiliary aids that are directly related to disabled children's educational needs as far as reasonable adjustments can be made.

8.2. Staff will ensure that all pupils are able to take part in extra-curricular activities and residential visits, and the school will monitor uptake of these visits to ensure no one is disadvantaged on the grounds of a protected characteristic.

8.3. Westfield Primary Community School will ensure that all forms of prejudice-motivated bullying is taken seriously and dealt with equally and firmly.

8.4. There will be differential schemes of work designed to meet the abilities and learning styles of all pupils.

8.5. There will be a clearly defined disciplinary system, which will be consistently enforced.

8.6. The school will increase access for disabled children and young people to the school curriculum and will take necessary steps to meet pupils' needs by using a variety of approaches and planning reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils, enabling our pupils to take as full a part as possible in the activities of the school.

8.7. The school will ensure there is reasonable access to the physical environment of the school.

8.8. The school will improve the delivery of written information to disabled children and young people.

8.9. The school will seek the views of advisory staff, outside agencies and local schools.

8.10. Embedded across the school curriculum there are key learning objectives taught to raise awareness of equality and diversity. This includes curriculum opportunities and whole school assemblies in which British Values are explored and the impact these have on the children's lives.

8.11. Bullying and prejudice will be carefully monitored and dealt with accordingly. Regular training will be given to both existing and new staff to ensure that they are aware of the process for reporting and following up incidents of prejudice-related bullying.
