

Barbara Hepworth

Hepworth was a famous artist and sculptor from Yorkshire. She was born in 1903 and died in 1975. She is most famous for her modern stone carvings and her work is well-known all over the world. Some of her pieces can be seen at the Yorkshire Sculpture Park.

Let's Celebrate

Advent is the start of the Christian year. It begins on the Sunday nearest to the 30th November and is when Christians start to prepare for Christmas. It is a time for Christians to enjoy time with their families and friends. Churches may display an Advent crown or Advent wreath.

Hanukkah is the Jewish festival of light. It is also known as Chanukah. Hanukkah begins in December or late November and lasts for 8 days. A candle is lit each night. During Hanukkah, Jewish people eat special foods, give presents and play a game called Dreidel.

Diwali is a Hindu festival known as the Festival of Lights. It represents light over darkness and good over evil. Before Diwali, Hindus clean and decorate their homes. On Diwali, they give presents, watch fireworks, pray, wear their best outfits and have a feast.
